

African Society for Engineering Management

Istanbul Sisli Turkey Conference and award

15th November, 2014

News Bulleting Vol: 45/2014

2014 Award of Excellence: Event Includes Paper Presentations

After a brief introduction by Bashir Garba Ibrahim the President African Society for Engineering Management .The event started with a motivational lecture presentation on Science and Technology by Professor Nouredine Melikechi University of Delaware United State of America and presentation on on African Youth Employability by Obumneme Nwafor Center for Educational Development in Africa (CEDAF) Scotland.In the President remark, he stated that the African Society for Engineering Management remain committed, as we were when we launched our social responsibility activities,capacity building, enterpreneurial and business development across Africa and other countries of the world, to build upon the strong foundation of economic partnership to promote stronger, sustainable and balanced engineering growth in Africa, to support the creation of more jobs on both sides the Africa and to increase our international partnership with other countries.We always see it as an opportunity to enhance exchange of ideas,values as Africans to create an open economies and societies, share and partnership including transparency and joint ventures creation in Africa and the International Communities.We commend the work of the Professor Nouredine Melikechi in the area of African development ,Dr Sule Lamido Governor of Jigawa State of Nigeria and Aljazeera Media Network for their contribution to the developement of Africa at various capacities.For the reasons mentioned and inview of the society selection criteria an award of excellence is awarded in recognition of their contributions. Afrisem has contributed immensely to youth development in Africa and has succeeded in encouraging social responsilities and community service to all its members.This annual event is a forum the society use in recognizing and appreciating the effort made by others in African development.Aljazeera Media Network program titled:Inside Africa has contributed to the enlightenment of Africa and Africans in the area of democracy,infrastructural development and education, like wise showing the effects of corruption to our economy. Our Society is pleading with the governement of egypt to release the staff of Aljazeera in custody so as to strengten their relationship with the media world and show the world that egypt is one of the leading Nation in Africa that respect civil right and rule of law.Our mission is to serve humanity through the use of best practice in technology and engineering project management.To harness its collective wisdom and leadership to assist national agencies choose appropriate policy options that address the most critical issues affecting countries of the world.To enhance and promote good engineering management practice.To make information available to the countries in Africa on the world's best engineering management and business practice in key activities.To foster socio-economic security and sustainable development and poverty alleviation among all countries in Africa, through the proper application of technology management and entrepreneurship.To offer advice and guidance on policies, interests and concerns that relates to best engineering and technology practice for sustainable development of the built and natural environments through conferences and workshops.The introduction of our new programs for African development will be available during our annual general assembly in Addis Ababa in 2015Award were presented to Aljazeera Media Network by Professor, Nouredine Melikechi and the President Titled:African Media Network of the year to Mr. Mustapha Ozkaya Director Programs Turkey,Professor, Nouredine Melikechi Titled:Award of Excellence of Youth Empowerment and development in Africa (Algeria in particular),Dr Sule Lamido titled: Developmental and Transformational Project Execution in Africa(Nigeria in particular)

Our Society is pleading with the governement of egypt to release the staff of Aljazeera in custody so as to strengten their relationship with the media world and show the world that egypt is one of the leading Nation in Africa that respect civil right and rule of law.

Award of Fellow

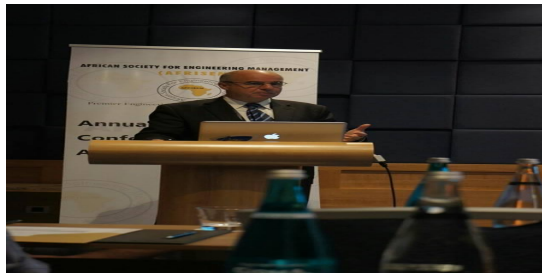

Muyideen Alimi Yusuf, Obumneme Nwarfor, Muhammad Jamil Mustapha, Mohammed Aminu Sambo Fatai Anafi, Muhammad Dauda, Abbas Imam Hadejia, Hassan Sabo, Isa Ismaila, kasan Muhammad, Freddy Ogugua Essenwa, Oyebode Abubakar Muideen, Muktar Atiku Zakari, Olumide Abiodun Oluyinaka, Sam C. Ojukwu, Abdulfatah Muhammed, Alhasan Kawu Sabo, Ahmed Messlmani.

Pictures of the Events

President left, Mustapha OZkaya Director Programs Aljazeera Media Network Center, Professor Noureddine Melikechi right

Noureddine Melikechi Presenting a paper

Aljazeera Media Network receiving the award

